Call for Proposals

Provost's Professional Development Award in Faculty Precepting, 2020

Program Summary

The Provost's Professional Development Award in Faculty Precepting for 2020 is a pool of $4000 in funds for support for research and professional development in the area of academic advising/precepting. Advising/precepting is a core function of the University's mission. Faculty who are interested in improving their advising/precepting practices are encouraged to submit a proposal for consideration. Proposals will be reviewed by a committee of faculty members who have served as advisors/preceptors and who have demonstrated a commitment to improving advising/precepting practices. Proposals will be evaluated on the basis of the quality of the proposed project, the potential impact on advising/precepting practices, and the feasibility of the project. Preference will be given to projects that have the potential to be shared with other faculty members.
