BACCALAUREATE CEREMONIES

“To laugh often and much;
To win the respect of intelligent people
and the affection of children;
to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure
the betrayal of false friends;
to appreciate beauty,
to find the best in others;
to leave the world a little better;
whether by a healthy child,
a garden patch or a redeemed social condition;
to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived.
This is the meaning of success.”

– Ralph Waldo Emerson

Hello, Class of 2024!

Celebrating my first commencement as Stockton's president fills me with pride and gratitude. I'm grateful to be leading the very institution where my mother earned her degree as an adult student. Though I've only been able to spend this past year with you, you have all made an impact on me.

In just this year, you've proven to be resilient, entrepreneurial, trailblazing, inclusive and outspoken. Your commitment to community engagement and social justice, and your willingness to speak your mind and stand up for what's right have impressed me. I know these qualities will carry you far as you prepare for what's next.

You've triumphed over obstacles, persevered through 'unprecedented' times and kept pushing to meet your goals. Along the way, you've made new friends, connected with faculty and staff and forged relationships that will serve you for years to come.

As you walk away with your diploma, remember what you've learned here at Stockton. Not just the formulas, research and clinical skills, but how to problem solve, communicate effectively and listen to your conscience. Continue to build the relationships that strengthen our community of opportunity.

While your degree may be complete, your time at Stockton is just beginning. As the newest members of our alumni community, you have the opportunity to give back, mentor current students, and share your Stockton experiences. Visit often and let us know what you're up to – you never know how your story may inspire or help another Osprey.

I can't wait to see where you soar next, and I know you'll continue to make us all proud.

Go Ospreys!

STUDENT SPEAKERS

Maya Vaughn | 9:30 a.m.

Maya Vaughn is a student of excellence, and a relentless pursuit of personal and professional growth. Earning a B.S. in Psychology with a minor in Behavioral Neuroscience, she has honed a diverse skill set that includes electroencephalogram (EEG) laboratory research, interning at the Sara & Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center, and being a docent for a United Nations history exhibit. Throughout Maya's academic endeavors, she has demonstrated a steadfast dedication to driving and discussion groups through the Holocaust Resource Center. As Maya embarks on the next chapter of her life, she hopes to continue her education and eventually receive her doctorate in psychology, eager to make a lasting impact and inspire others to reach their fullest potential.

Elizabeth Myers | 2:30 p.m.

Elizabeth Myers graduated from Stockton University in the Fall of 2023 with a B.A. in Literature. Her literary scholarship focused on 19th century British literature, contemporary queer American literature, and feminist theory, for which she was awarded the 2022 Feyt/Armstrong Award for Best L4.1 (0.6 (o)-8.1 (S (2)-0.6 (w)-17.1 (h)-10.4 (i)-0.6 (

& Entertainment (HBSE), Dave Sholler works closely with players, coaches, executives and ownership to design and implement communications strategies to elevate both the 76ers and HBSE brands.

He leads and orchestrates major announcements including new player signings and trades, news conferences and media tours, global brand campaigns, and the acquisitions of new properties.

Sholler has driven communications strategies for ownership investments in the Washington Commanders of the National Football League, Cleveland Guardians of Major League Baseball, Real Salt Lake of Major League Soccer, and Joe Gibbs Racing of NASCAR, as well as the acquisitions of Cooperstown All-Star Village and Ripken Baseball. In January, Forbes ranked HBSE as one of the Program Distinction

Undergraduate programs may convey recognition of remarkable performance in program work to students graduating, in general, with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.5 in program-cognate credits. Additional criteria may be required by the program. For such awards, the phrase Program Distinction will be added to the degree and noted on the transcript. Programs that choose to convey this recognition will include all criteria in the relevant section of the University Bulletin.

Stockton University

Stockton University was founded in 1969 as Richard Stockton State College, a public four-year college within the New Jersey system of higher education. A residential institution with students drawn from across the state, Stockton is located at the edge of the New Jersey Pinelands, 12 miles northwest of Atlantic City and 50 miles southeast of Philadelphia. The largest campus in New Jersey, Stockton's award-winning buildings are set within 1,600+ acres of forest, streams, and lakes.

Academic Honors

As part of a comprehensive educational effort to promote and recognize outstanding academic achievement, Stockton University grants baccalaureate degrees with the designations cum laude, magna cum laude, summa cum laude to

Academic Regalia

Academic garb dates back to medieval times, when heavy gowns, hoods, and caps were worn by students to protect them against the cold, dank, and drafty corridors of their universities. In the Middle Ages, Europeans wore clothing of distinctive colors to indicate their status or profession. It was only natural, therefore, that when monks and students began to don distinctive costume for bachelor's (apprentices), master's (teachers), and doctor's (teachers who completed postgraduate study) degrees, the most conspicuous distinctions appeared on the hood.

The academic gowns of the past have been replaced by gowns made of lighter fabric, as students no longer wear them to keep warm and since most commencement ceremonies today take place in the late spring and early summer. Typically, commencement gowns are black, although some institutions have adopted gowns in school colors.

The bachelor's gown, comparatively simple in design, usually has no adornment other than its characteristic long, pointed sleeves. The master's gown has oblong sleeves, which are open at the wrist. The doctor's gown differs from the bachelor's and master's gowns because it sports velvet panels down the front and around the neck and three velvet bands across round, open sleeves.

The bachelor's and master's caps are traditional mortarboard while some doctor's degree caps are a soft, large beret. The tassel, which is usually black for bachelor's and master's degrees, occasionally comes in a color representing the field of study. Upon conferral, students switch the tassel ceremoniously to the left.

The hood, as the most distinctive and symbolic piece of the academic costume, indicates the level of the degree, the length of the hood, and the color of the trim. Bachelor's hoods are three feet long, master's three and a half feet, and doctor's four feet long. There are also similar variations in the length of the hood. The color of the hood represents the color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. Some of the colors of the trimming are listed below.

Mace

The origins of the ceremonial mace can be traced to the Middle Ages when knights wielded maces as weapons. As knighthood became obsolete, the mace became symbolic of power. It is now a traditional symbol of authority in churches, government, and universities.

Ned Gerber, Port Republic woodcarver who served on Stockton's founding committee, carved the mace carried by the Faculty Grand Marshal at Stockton graduation ceremonies. The three-foot shaft of the Stockton mace is crafted from walnut and holly, woods indigenous to southern New Jersey. The walnut is from a century-old tree hewn by Tom Lang, a retired member of the Stockton staff. Pewter, the metal employed in Stockton's mace, was a popular and practical metal in New Jersey during colonial times.
