

WASHINGTON

W

H

C

Program
P

2018

This notice is to inform you that the State of California, in accordance with the has been amended with amendments on May 2, 2004. We provide associated with the amendments. The amendments are as follows:

(1) The amendments to the California Code of Regulations (CCR) are:

(a) The amendments to the CCR are:

(3) Labeled containers; and

(4) A training program for employees

exposure to hazardous chemicals.

1. GENERAL

emergency situations.

The amendments to the CCR are:

program. The Program Coordinator is Chris Oued, Manager

Regulatory Compliance Coordinator, 1155 specific (train through) training with respect to...

The DDFIC... provides the initial...
provides the initial general and on general supplementary...
... on the Hazard Communication

Act

However, the list is called the right to...

hazardous chemicals... by all departments must be department's supervisor...

"Compliance" electronic... to be returned by May 4

During this year, Department... and...
work areas:

If the new product contains a hazardous chemical which has not needs to do a walk-through to demonstrate where and how the to be taken. This information is on the MSDS/SDS which accompanies each product sent by the manufacturer.

hazardous products or chemicals employees can be exposed to.

of the work areas (see list below), identify all hazardous chemicals information is provided about a hazardous chemical or process in a will ensure that the MSDS/SDS kept in each work area are updated as needed, the MSDS/SDS binder is kept intact, a copy is sent to the

to ensure that the MSDS/SDS are updated as needed.

to ensure that the MSDS/SDS are updated as needed, a copy is sent to the

Obtain the MSDS/SDS and file it in the binder.

Department

Title

Access Control

Access Control Supervisor

ARHU

Dean

Electrical Shop

Electrical Shop Supervisor

Plant Services

Plant Services Supervisor

Grounds

Grounds Supervisor

PAV

PAV Supervisor

Paint Shop

Paint Shop Supervisor

Training Shop

Training Shop Supervisor

...

...

...

...

...

...

and Dean of NAMS/Nacote

Directors and/or Deans are responsible for ensuring that the procedures for products to be used within work areas are obtained before chemicals are used.

The supervisors ensure that all containers of hazardous materials in their respective work areas are properly labeled as required by the P-CERT MCS. Labels must be updated if they should become illegible, fall off the container, or are obscured in any manner.

Right to Know information from the properly labeled large containers.

Part 1 and 17 CFR 101.101-101.101 are contained in the training

Identification Systems (HMIS) and the National Fire Protection Association

HMIS and NFPA 704 are contained in the training

Systems (HMIS) or Classification and Labeling of Chemicals will be also be reviewed in training sessions for employees and other personnel protection information which must be made available to all employees

V. EMPLOYEE TRAINING

hazardous chemicals under normal conditions of use or in foreseeable

hazardous chemicals under normal conditions of use or in foreseeable

the proper use of such materials in the workplace

qualified. All employees shall be trained by a qualified person

qualified. All employees shall be trained by a qualified person

qualified. All employees shall be trained by a qualified person

The trainers must meet the definition of a technically qualified person

EMPHO Department with the names of their employees that need initial general Supplemental training from company. The first year of training will be completed by the end of the year. EMPHO Department will

TRAINING REGIONS

The entire EMPHO Department is required for the initial general and

EMPHO Department

to ensure that all EMPHO employees are trained with Supplemental training immediately.

initial and general training according to OSHA Lab Standard which

Staff will have to be trained by Christina Schirmer at Christina.Schirmer@stockton.edu to obtain their online training. Any questions or contact of the training could be referred to Christina

Schirmer at Christina.Schirmer@stockton.edu

Justine.Cirano@stockton.edu

Attendance is mandatory at all general training sessions for the hazardous chemicals under normal conditions of use or foreseeable emergencies.

All training is provided at no cost to the employee and is provided during working hours. The training is appropriate in content and vocabulary to the educational level, literacy and language of the employees.

documented. Documentation of initial specific and initial general and refresher general training is maintained by each supervisor in their respective work areas. Training documentation is also maintained by the presence of release of hazardous chemicals including the chemicals in

3. Container labels and hazards:

6. Provide and demonstrate proper use of relevant Personal Protective Equipment;

8. Explain the use of control measures and procedures to prevent exposure;

7. Show the location(s) of hazardous materials, explain the disposal procedures;

9. Attend with the staff (MOROCCO MOFCO staff) in the field.

10. The training must be conducted in a way that ensures that the training is relevant to the work of the staff and that the training is conducted in a way that ensures that the training is relevant to the work of the staff.

from RMEHC

The initial and final assessment is a critical part of the training program and should be conducted in a way that ensures that the training is relevant to the work of the staff and that the training is conducted in a way that ensures that the training is relevant to the work of the staff.

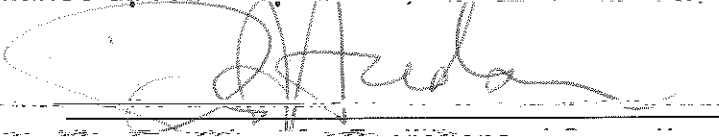

Substance List.

and printed by the student during the online session training must be maintained for the duration of employment

University. The Director of Facilities Planning and Construction and

BMEHS office of three outside contractors of psychosocial hazards that

Donald Hudson,

VICE PRESIDENT FOR FACILITIES AND OPERATIONS
Stockton University

1/9/18

Date