

2032: Undergraduate Transfer Credit

Summary of Key Changes

transfer. When a transfer course does not have the same credit value as its closest Stockton equivalent course, the course may still be used to fulfill a specific degree or program requirement. All aggregate credit requirements must be met. The University evaluates courses on a case-by-case basis.

. A maximum of 96 credits per degree may be accepted in transfer from regionally accredited four-year colleges and universities.

Stockton programs may place further restrictions on the acceptance of credits in order or this reason, courses such as professional education, practicums, internships, and fieldwork courses taken at other institutions may not transfer. Some programs may specify that certain courses be completed more recently than 20 years ago. The Provost, or the Provost's designee, may authorize non-regionally accredited formal course work for transfer upon review of relevant transcripts and other supportive materials, and only with the positive written recommendation of the student's program chair and the school dean. Such credits, if granted, are only to be used for program requirements.

Transfer from Two-Year Colleges

A maximum of 64 credits may be transferred from regionally accredited two-year colleges. For additional Stockton degrees and certifications, exceptions to this limit must follow the Transfer Credit after Matriculation process.

applicable to county/community colleges in other states, provided that they are regionally accredited. Thus, a graduate of an approved transfer program of a county/community college or of the associate degree program of Thomas Edison State College is granted the full amount of the minimum total number of credits required for graduation in that degree program, up to a maximum of 64 credits. In this way, courses that ordinarily would not transfer (e.g., those with grades of C minus or D, or physical education courses) are allowed in transfer as part of the A.A. or A.S. degree. However, minimum grades for specific Stockton requirements still must be met. Acceptance of credits in transfer does not guarantee that those credits will be applicable to the program chosen by the student. In cases where the degree is granted for fewer than 64 credits, only that number will be awarded in transfer.
