

IN HONOR OF HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH AT STOCKTON UNIVERSITY

HOY POR TI, MAÑANA POR MÍ (TODAY FOR YOU, TOMORROW FOR ME): MEXICO DURING & AFTER WORLD WAR II

This presentation will focus on the role of Mexico before and after World War II and the story of Gilberto Bosques Saldivar (1892-1995), who served as the Mexican Consul General in Marseille, France between 1939 and 1943. As the Consul General, Bosques issued tens of thousands of visas for Spanish and Jewish refugees who wanted to escape from Nazi-occupied Europe.
