Sen. Chris Connors, R-Ocean, Burlington,

GALLOWAY TOWNSHIP — Five 9th Legislative District incumbents and challengers took part in an overly cordial debate Wednesday evening in the Campus Center Theater at Richard Stockton College as they discussed constituents' issues and traded compliments.

The debate was co-sponsored by The Press of Atlantic City and the William J. Hughes Center for Public Policy at Stockton.

The Democrats called for change and fresh faces in the district, while the incumbent Republicans touted legislative accomplishments and future plans. But there was no sparring
