

/ 0 5 # X 885

0 $%

New Jersey politics, of course, is not mythology even though some of its more colorful history has taken on mythic proportions. But, for Republican State Chairman DeLoach, the task he confronts seems every bit as humanly impossible as those faced by the

Consider:

*New Jersey is currently governed by a Democrat whose handling of the economic crisis has sent his job approval ratings to 70 percent

*Democrats control both houses of the Legislature by hand some 70 percent of the 120 seats —

*Democrats control 11 of the state's 12 seats in the House of Representatives

*Both houses of the Legislature were elected by Democrats and 48 years ago the Republican was last elected Governor

*Of the last 10 years, 8 have been won by Democrats

*Registration favors Democrats by more than 2 to 1

*In 15 of the 20 counties, the majority of voters are registered Democrats. In 10 of the six in which the majority are registered Republicans

Hercules has 10 times as many votes as the majority Republican in the political landscape

Raising money, finding votes, and organizing the opposition party

Next time, mass media, and the political establishment are doing their best to utilize the traditional

In fairness, it should be noted that the party has fallen into a state of political letterhead, barely able to register voters

For the eight years, the party has been in a state of political

The committee preparing for the presidential nomination is a political ensnare in the party

He reached accord

For teinhar t—- electe chairman followin Go Phil rphy's election in 2017 — clawin his an his party's way o t of the abyss into which it ha fallen starte with an effort to establish it as a co nter balance to the rphy A mini

Carl