

The Raid – and its Aftermath

By Carl Golden | Au ust 1 , 2 22, 1:4 m | n olumnist (https://www.insidernj.com/category/columnist/)

Whether Donald Trum scoo ed u 15 cartons of documents and class f ed mater al and scurr ed o to h s Mar-A-La o redou t 2 months a o s ol t cally nonse uent al.

By carry nout an unrecedented rad (htt.s://www.msnc.com/rachel-maddow-show/maddow lo/mar-lao-search-trum-challen ed-release-warrant-rcna422 3) on his Palm Beach domic lein search of the urloined a ers, the FBI and the Delartment of Justice layed directly nto Trum is hands, deliver now what he's always craved—the center of national attention and dominatin frenzied media coverale.

Trum , not law enforcement, revealed the rad, se z n the u er hand n fram n the narrat ve, mmed ately cast n h mself n the role of v ct m of a v nd ct ve De artment of Just ce o sessed w th destroy n h m.

He s, n all l kel hood, u lty of cart n mater als from the Wh te House to h s home — an o ense n the order of olt cal corru t on sever ty the e u valent of a s eed n t cket, hardly the stu to just fy FBI a ents wander n throu h h s r vate res dence turn n over d shes and ta le vases n search of mater als they have thus far refused to descr e or d scuss.

The react on to the FBI act on was sw ft and red cta le:

t's een dr ven y nflat on

Con ress s o sed to a and ra se cor orate tax l kely lann n a ala

The Mar-A-La oraknown nthe us ts heels nto th

A delay of a whad no m for nearly

In the