
Democrats dominate in getting bills to become laws, with leadership snagging most wins

...s and Republicans say power is concentrated in too few hands in

BY:

N J ' a - a a d

A legislator's party affiliation largely determines whether the bills they introduce become law in Trenton's Democrat-controlled Statehouse. A third of state lawmakers

Sen. Phil Morris (D-Cmden) was first prime sponsor on 8 bills Legislation, 1 of which became law. Morris, a fellow worker since 2001 who moved to the Senate this term, was defeated term.

New

budget

m j

M s

Still, he noted, the factors can drive lawmakers to introduce bills, even when they know there's no hope.

\ Assembly

DA A DIFILI

â

Dana DiFilippo comes to the 6e M

