

Jane Bokunewicz Named Coordinator at Institute for Gaming, Hospitality and Tourism

For immediate release

April 28, 2020

Galloway, N.J. - Stockton University Associate Professor of Hospitality Jane Bokunewicz has been named Institute Coordinator for the Levenson Institute for Gaming, Hospitality and Tourism (LIGHT) at Stockton, effective May 1.

As coordinator, Dr. Bokunewicz will, on an interim basis, take on the duties of LIGHT Executive Director Rummy Pandit, who is leaving Stockton University to take a position with Johnson & Wales University. A formal search for an Executive Director for LIGHT will take place once the COVID-19 pandemic subsides.

taught about casino and hotel management, but she also has substantive

School of Business at Stockton.

Bokunewicz worked for more than two decades in Atlantic City, more than half spent as Vice President of Administration at Tropicana, overseeing Human Resources, Facilities, Security, Purchasing and Quality Assurance.

She has also worked with LIGHT since 2012. She was lead researcher on several institute initiatives, including a study of millennial entertainment and several analyses of underage gambling and college gambling behavior. She was the lead author of Casino Gaming Technology, and a contributing author to Casino Gaming in Atlantic City, A Thirty-Year Retrospective. Dr. Bokunewicz holds a Ph.D. in Communication, Culture and Media from Drexel University and she is a third-degree black belt in Tang Soo Do Karate.

ing closely with LIGHT over the past 8 years and I am as we navigate the ongoing COVID-for his illustrious service to Stockton University over the past decade and wish him continued success

#

Contact:

Diane D'Amico

Director of News and Media Relations

Galloway, N.J. 08205

Diane.D'Amico@stockton.edu

609-652-4593

609-412-8069

stockton.edu/media