

STOCKTON UNIVERSITY

PASS/NO CREDIT GRADING OPTION CONTRACT

Students must earn 12 credits (including Transfer) for permission to enroll in the pass/no credit grade mode can be granted.

This form must be submitted to the Office of Student Records by the end of the Drop/Add period for the term specified below.

TERMS:

1. This decision is irrevocable and cannot be changed to the A-F grading system.
2. Some programs will not count credits in this grade mode as part of program degree requirements. I have checked with my Preceptor/Program Coordinator of my major and I understand the requirements of my program.
3. The number of credits graded in the pass/no credit mode which can be applied toward meeting PCE requirements is limited to 10% of the total number of Stockton credits which must be earned to satisfy PCE requirements. I understand the limitation on the applicability of these credits toward meeting my graduation requirements.
4. This course will not be factored into the student's GPA.
5. Students on probation cannot opt for the pass/no credit grade mode. I understand this policy and certify that I am not on probation.
6. Only one course per term can be taken in the pass/no credit grade mode. I certify that this is the only course I am taking this term in the pass/no credit mode.
